LOCAL NEWS.

If you see it in the Townsman, it's news to be relied upon; if it is news and so, you'll see it in the Townsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Moore have moved from Elm street to Washington avenue.

Miss Edith Clark, of the Tyer Rubber
Co.'s office, is enjoying her vacation
this week.

The Sunday school services at the Free church will be omitted during the month of August.

Mrs. C. R. Doyle of Highland Road has gone to Jefferson, N. H. for a vacation of several weeks.

The Tyer Rubber Company and the Free church Sunday school hold their annual picnics tomorrow.

The monthly "roll call" meeting of the Free church Y. P. S. C. E. will be held next Sunday evening.

Rev. Dr. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson from Philadelphia are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. J. H. Merrill.

Rev. Fr. M. W. Donovan of Denver, Col., is visiting at the home of Mr. and John F. Hurley on Harding street.

James Feeney, the well known letter carrier, is enjoying his annual vacation.
Chester Whitten is acting as substitute.

Ralph Upton, formerly of this town, took part in a Country circus at Winthrop, where he now resides, on Wednesday.

Speaker Cole will speak for "the Commonwealth" at the Cape Cod Old Home week celebration to be held today at Harwich, Mass.

Miss Annie G. Donovan, organist at St. Augustine's church, and Miss Winnie Malley of Lawrence are at Bar Harbor,
Me., for the month of August.

Christ church will be closed for two Sundays to allow extensive repairs on the organ. It will be reopened for service the third Sunday in August.

A cablegram has been received by Selectman B. Frank Smith, stating that his daughter, Miss Susanne W. had arrived safely in Liverpool on the S. S.
Saxonia.

Dr. C. Briceault, the well known local veterinary has opened an office in O'Leary's stable in Lawrence where he will be pleased to meet all his local friends. He can be reached by telephone.

J. Warren Berry attended the annual meeting of the Eighth Massachusetts regiment in Gloucester. There were 110 members present and Mr. Berry reports an excellent time.

Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Woodbridge of Pittsburg, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Chase on Elm street. Mrs. Woodbridge was formerly Miss Susan Edgar Abbott of this town.

T. Maloney, J. Saunders, R. Hodnett and C. Moynihan, all of this town played great base ball with the E. Frank Lewis team, who defeated the Nashua Reserves at Canobie lake last Saturday. Saunders pitched a good game.

Joseph T. Lovejoy lost his third cow from poisoning on Tuesday morning, two others having died last week. The cows became poisoned by eating dynamite which was concealed beneath a boat in the owner's field. The boat was evidently overturned by the cows.

The annual Free church picnic will be held tomorrow at Bailey's grove.
Haggett's pond. Barges will leave the church at nine o'clock in the forenoon and at one o'clock in the afternoon. One of the morning barges will go through have been arranged for the children and an especially good time is assured. The tickets are 25 cents, round trip.

The annual picnic under the auspices of the employees of Tyer Rubber Company will be held at Haver Beach on Saturday, August fourth. Special electric cars will leave the Square at 7.15,
and returning will leave Haver at 8.00.
Tickets are now on sale, the prices being 40 cents for employees and 50 cents to outsiders. In case of rain the picnic will be postponed until the following Saturday, August 11.

Local horsemen were disappointed
yesterday to hear that the meet at Woonsocket, R. I., had been declared off owing to the action of the police in stopping pool selling. Two well known local horses were to run in yesterday's races,
P. G., owned by P. J. Hannon, and Loring II., the property of William H.
Higgins. This was to have been the initial appearance of these fine horses in fast company, and many enthusiasts were anxious to hear the result.

The Massachusetts Workman for July contains an interesting account of Rev.
C. Julian Tutthill of Mattapoisett, who has recently given to the Workman order a new ritual. Rev. Mr. Tutthill is a graduate of the Andover Theological Seminary and it was while in Andover that he joined the order becoming a member of Lincoln lodge, No. 78. Many of the older members of the lodge remember with pleasure the interesting evenings spent with Rev. Mr. Tutthill and are pleased that one of their members has the distinction of writing a ritual.

LOWER GAS RATE.

Lawrence Gas Company Announces a Five Per Cent Reduction for Local Consumers.

The following letter was sent to Mayor John P. Kane of Lawrence by an official of the Lawrence Gas Company, and was read at a meeting of the council last night. In an interview by the Townsman representative the official announced that the reduction would also apply to Andover.

The letter was as follows:

July 24, 1906.

Hon. John P. Kane, Mayor,
Lawrence, Mass.

Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your communication requesting a reduction in the price of gas to the citizens of Lawrence.

Herewith I submit a copy of the vote of the directors of the Lawrence Gas
Co., passed at a meeting held on July 6th, last.

Voted:—"On and after October 1, 1906, the price of gas to consumers shall be 95 cents per thousand cubic feet."

We are enabled to make this reduction on account of the great improvements which we are making in the plant at Lawrence, and we hope when these improvements have been completed that we will be in a position to give the citizens of Lawrence a still further reduction in the price of gas and electricity.

Trusting this will meet with the approval of yourself and the city government, I remain,

Yours very truly,

R. W. EDMONDS,

2nd Treasurer.

The former standard has been $1.10 per 1000 cubic feet with a reduction of 10 cents per 1000 feet if paid within 15 days, thus setting the standard at what is known as $1.00 gas. Therefore the total material difference in the new rate is five cents per 1000 cubic feet.

The reason for this reduction is that the Gas company have increased their stock over $400,000 worth. They have expended $623,000 on new conduits and other fixtures.

A large number of Clansmen in conjunction with the Haverhill Clan held their annual picnic at Wingate grove, last Saturday. A very good program of sports was held in which several of the local members were successful in winning prizes.

The first annual meeting of the Andover association football club was held in the Abbott Village hall on Tuesday evening, when the following officers were elected for the incoming season:
President, Daniel McGuire; vice president, William Denham; treasurer, Jerry Sullivan; secretary, James Dick; captain, Robert Anderson; executive committee, Robert Carnie, Oliver Hutton, William Denham, John Mathews, Daniel McGuire.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, Essex street, Saturday night, when the latter was presented with a beautiful chair, David Bruce presenting it. Songs and recitations were rendered. Dancing and violin selections were given by Daniel McGuire. Phonograph music was also rendered. Refreshments were served. It was a very pleasant and joyous evening.

The 38th annual reunion of the First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery Association will be held at Salem Willows, Mass., Thursday, August 9, 1906. There will be no postponement. The assessment is 50 cents. The business meeting will commence at 1.30 p. m. The same cool and comfortable quarters have been secured in the hall over the pavilion.
Coffee will be furnished by the Association. Bring your drinking utensils. A cordial invitation is extended to widows, sons and daughters of deceased comrades,
also all families of comrades and friends of the regiment will receive a cordial greeting. Any comrade unable to pay the assessment will be furnished with a badge by the secretary. An excellent fish dinner served for fifty cents at Chase's celebrated Cafe.

COLLIDED ON THEIR BICYCLES.

A bicycle collision which may prove fatal occurred Monday evening shortly after 8 o'clock in the vicinity of Flatts bridge in North Andover. As a result of the collision Miss Grace Frost lies in a dangerous condition at the Lawrence General Hospital while Henry Millet is confined to his home with several painful injuries. The first named was riding on Pond street near the Flatts bridge, going in the direction of Hardcourt George E. Kurlet's beautiful estate and Mr. Millet was descending what is known as the Hardcourt hill proceeding towards the parish, when the two machines came together with much force. The cyclists were hurled to the ground and the young lady was severely and seriously injured, bleeding profusely. With blood flowing from a deep gash over the right eye Mr. Millet carried Miss Frost to the roadside and then shouted lustily for help. In a few moments I. H. Chamberlain arrived in a carriage and conveyed Miss Frost to the office of Dr. L. H. George, where Mr. Millet quickly hastened.

The blood was streaming from a ragged gash over the latter's right eye, but unimpaired of his injuries, he declined to be treated until Miss Frost had arrived and was first attended to. Her injuries consisted of a deep cut on the frontal bone, six inches in length and penetrating to the skull. She was also bleeding from the stomach and nose and her body was covered with contusions.

After the doctor dressed her wounds she was hurriedly conveyed to the Lawrence General Hospital, where it was stated this morning that although her condition was serious, she rested quite comfortably.

Mr. Millet's wound which laid the flesh open to the bone necessitated the taking of a number of stitches. Both patients bore the severe pain with little complaining.

Miss Frost is the daughter of Charles Frost, who resides on Bradford street in the Pond district. She is about 13 years of age.

Mr. Millet is a native of France, and is employed by Calvin Rea, on the Bruin Hill farm in the Pond district. He is 21 years of age.

The scene of the collision is a dark and somewhat lonely spot on the shore of Lake Cochichewick. It is about 10 minutes walk to the nearest residence, which is Hardcourt, the residence of George E. Kurlet.

Mr. Millet stated that he was descending the hill at moderate speed when he saw Miss Frost endeavoring to ride up the steep grade. He turned to the right and as he did Miss Frost suddenly turned her wheel in the same direction. Although he strained every muscle in order to control the machine the collision was unavoidable.

TWO BOLD BREAKS AT NORTH ANDOVER.

North Andover residents are greatly alarmed as the result of two bold breaks in that town Monday night. The residences of Luther S. Ellis, 203 High street and Charles O. Barker, 10 Free cott street were both entered early this morning but nothing except food is reported to be missing.

Chief of Police Mizzen has been notified of both breaks and is making an investigation. From the traces left behind, it is improbable that the midnight visitors were a professional but on the other hand it is thought that he was after food and what money he could find lying about.

The house of Rural Mail Carrier Barker at the corner of High and Prescott streets is thought to have been the first entered. The house stands well back from both streets and it would be an easy matter for a person to approach without being seen.

Mr. Barker was awakened by a noise in the cellar and descended to that part of the house. Here he found that some person had been prowling about in search of food. The food entrance through a small window which had been left open. The party in the cellar undoubtedly heard Mr. Barker as he approached and made his egress through the same window that he entered.

Mr. Barker judged it to have been the vicinity of 2 o'clock when he was first disturbed. His milk man comes about the same hour and the noise of some one about the house did not arouse his suspicions at once. The break at the Ellis house was probably made after the one at the Barker residence. There might have been more than one man implicated but it is thought that but one entered the Ellis house.

A quadrant of glass was cut from a pane of glass in the unfinished room in the rear of the kitchen. A portion of the sash was cut away, with a chisel and the glass putty was moved to allow the glass cut to be taken out. The persons could then put his hand through the opening and unfurnished the catch. Crawling through the open window the door into the kitchen was found unlocked and it was an easy matter for him to make his way to any part of the house. A safe of snap matches on the kitchen mantle was emptied and burned match ends were found about the floor from one end of the house to the other. Mr. Ellis believes that he heard the creaking of doors but thought that it was in the other side of the house. No money was kept on the first floor and it is plainly evident that this was the primary object of the break as every draw, closet and cupboard was ransacked from top to bottom.

Valuable silver plate on the sideboard was left untouched. The door to the cellar was unbolled and the cellar visited. Here food was kept and a loaf of cake, half a loaf of bread, two cans of shrimps and a can of peaches were taken. A newspaper was found torn in halves on the shed floor. It is thought that a part of the paper missing was used to wrap up the food.

No other window or door, either in the tenement occupied by the Ellis family or in the other half of the house shows evidence of having been touched by the burglar.

The house is the last on the east side of High street and a person could approach it from the fields in the rear without fear of detection. Both breaks show that the person making them was familiar with the surroundings. As no one has been seen in the vicinity no description is to be had and the police have no clew.

Only a few more days of the Great Sale of Foot-Wear, Bags, Trunks and Dress Suits Cases at Chas. M. Evans 235 Essex St. This stock is being sold at ridiculously low prices and it will benefit any one in need of good, desirable foot-wear at low prices.

We are fast selling these goods to make room for the alterations before the Fall Stock arrives.

"He had asked me to marry him," whispered the somewhat mature maiden. "What would advise me to do?"

"Make him put it in writing," promptly answered her dear girl friend. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

LOWELL BRIBERY CHARGES FELL FLAT.

LOWELL, Aug. 1.—The sensational charges made by Alderman William J. Hayes at the meeting of the board of aldermen, Tuesday, July 24, fell flat last night, when explanations were presented in the form of affidavits signed by Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Jeremiah F. Murphy and Andrew A. Gray.

Sifted right down, under oath, the alderman's public statement that he had been offered $1000 to support the mayor's veto of the Independent Telephone franchise, proved that "Jerry" Murphy, who is well known about town, had said that there were rumors to the effect that "offers were being made as high as $1000."

Before the meeting closed, Mayor Casey declared the New England Telephone Company completely exonerated.

James F. Owens appeared for Alderman Hayes, John J. Hogan for Mr. Murphy, and F. N. Wier for the New England Telephone Co. Prior to the meeting, several of the aldermen exchanged ideas as to what was or was not about to be divulged. The most interesting figure, of course, was Alderman William J. Hayes, who made the charges at a recent meeting. Alderman Allen had a talk with Alderman Hayes before the meeting, as did several of the other members, but Alderman Hayes had very little to say as to the developments of the evening.

CLAIMS HE WAS SHOT BY ARRESTING OFFICER.

A lengthy session of police court was held before Judge Rogers in Methuen Tuesday when Frank Lovello, Marco Brenno, of Lawrence, were fined $5 for larceny, and Rosso Raffello was fined $1 for the same offence. They were charged with larceny of fruit from an orchard in the east part of the town, and were arrested Sunday afternoon by Officers Emerson, Harris and Dugdale. Lovello and Brenno were fined $2 for trespassing. They all paid. Shalin-Hassur, of No. Lawrence street Methuen, who was with the latter, was arrested at the same time, but was not in police court as he received a bullet wound just above the knee during the chase that resulted in the arrest, and he claims that the bullet was from a revolver in the hands of an officer. He is not seriously hurt, however, and will probably be able to appear in court in a few days. He is charged with trespassing.

REDISTRICTING HEARING HELD AT SALEM YESTERDAY.

Politicians from all over Essex county were in attendance at the hearing given by the county commissioners at Salem Wednesday morning, on the matter of redistricting of the representative districts.

When the hearing was opened by Chairman Bates there was only a small attendance, but the crowd began to increase and by 10 o'clock it looked like a gathering of the clans and nearly all sections of the county were represented and all had some suggestion to make to the commissioners in regard to the changes in the district lines.

Commissioners Bates and Moody Kimball were on hand bright and early and the statement was made by Chairman Bates that he districts would have to include 2809 polls against 2336 which was the number required ten years ago. District 6 and 7 in Lawrence were the first to be taken up and Secretary Merrill of the Republican city committee favored making changes and putting wards 3 and 4, and 5 and 6 together, so as to give the Republicans a show as they had been able to elect a representative but about once in ten years.

Chairman Bates said that this would lay the commissioners open to criticism of the gerrymander and after talking over the matter of a double district it was decided to give Lawrence a separate hearing at a later date.

CHAIRMAN BATES ON THE REDISTRICTING.

County Commissioner Bates paid a visit to this city Tuesday. He was met by Supt. W. Grant Fancher of the Essex County Training school, but did not visit that institution, only making a brief visit to the court-house and the county jail. He then joined the Lyman Elks who left this city at 11:45 o'clock for their annual outing at Canobie lake today.

County Commissioner Kimball did not accompany Mr. Bates, being detained by a slight illness at his summer home at Parker River. When seen by a Telegram representative in regard to what would be done by the commissioners in revising the representative districts, Mr. Bates said: "It is true that I do not think we shall be able to make many changes in the districts with the exception of a few minor ones. I think that the district composing Methuen and wards one and two of Lawrence will remain the same. The law states that there shall be at least 2800 voters to one representative, but of course we cannot live up to exactly that number, but we will come as near to it as we possibly can. As regards the 4000 voters in wards 3 and 4, of course we would not leave them with one representative, but of course we are not going to do that. It is not true that we will hold an advertised hearing in Lawrence, but we shall visit the city and Haverhill several times before we make our report, and therefore give the people of Lawrence a chance to make suggestions. We intend to do what is right in the matter."

A congressman from Illinois tells of the trials of a politician in that state, whose wife is, according to his notions, a somewhat too ardent advocate of woman's suffrage. On one occasion, it appears, the better half was remonstrating with her husband for his adverse stand in the matter. "Mark my words!" exclaimed she, excitedly: "one of these fine days we women will rise in our might and demand a voice in the management of this country's affairs."

"For mercy's sake don't say that!" retorted the politician with assumed horror, "be satisfied, my dear, if you secure the right to vote!"

James F. Owens appeared for Alderman Hayes, John J. Hogan for Mr. Murphy, and F. N. Wier for the New England Telephone Co.

Prior to the meeting, several of the aldermen exchanged ideas as to what was or was not about to be divulged.

The most interesting figure, of course, was Alderman William J. Hayes, who made the charges at a recent meeting.

Alderman Allen had a talk with Alderman Hayes before the meeting, as did several of the other members, but Alderman Hayes had very little to say as to the developments of the evening.

SEE AND HEAR OVER A WIRE.

Seeing as well as hearing at a distance: the telephone. Many years ago an Australian paper published a famous cartoon describing an instrument for transmitting racing scenes to a distance. The story was copied everywhere and was generally believed. Since then many men of science have struggled with the problem, and an apparatus has now been completed which reinforces the telephone by making the persons speaking visible to each other.

KEEPING TAB ON THE WORLD

Revolution Hangs Fire In Russia Following Enforced Dissolution of Douma and Appeal of Members For Resistance of Taxation and Refusal of Military Service—New Premier Defines Czar's Policy as "Strong Handed Reform"—Bryan Captures Europe With Peace Address.

FOREIGN

Dissolved Douma Defies Czar.

Shortly after midnight, July 22, two months and eleven days after the Russian douma had been welcomed to St. Petersburg by the czar as the people's representatives and as "the best men in Russia," an imperial ukase was issued dissolving that parliament, declaring martial law and fixing March 5, 1907, as the time for a newly elected assembly. The czar's decision was taken at a conference with the grand dukes and General Trepoff. In his manifesto the czar refers to the great benefits expected from the douma in carrying out the reforms he had planned, but that "a cruel disappointment" had befallen his expectations. The representatives had strayed in beyond their competence and had made comments on the imperfections of the fundamental laws, "which can only be modified by our imperial will." He referred especially to the appeal made by the douma to the nation on the land question, thus inciting the peasants to pillage and disobedience. He calls on all the well disposed to unite for the peace of "our dear fatherland" and says his purpose is unchanged for the enlargement of the land of peasants. To this end the autocrat insists that he would proceed in a legislative manner through a future parliament.

Premier Stolypin.

Another decree relieved Premier Goremykin and appointed in his place M. Stolypin, but it was believed that a dictatorship would follow shortly. Stolypin also retains his post as minister of the interior. Immediately there was an exodus of foreigners from St. Petersburg, and the members of the douma went by train to Viborg, Finland, fearing the interference of troops at the capital. There they promptly went into session and drew up a defiant appeal to the citizens of all Russia, urging them neither to pay taxes nor to render military service so long as popular representation should be denied. It points out how the purpose of the douma to distribute land to working peasants from the holdings of the crown and the clergy and the private estates was thwarted by the government. It gives warning that any loans contracted by the government will never be acknowledged by the Russian people. It was signed by all the members of the douma except Heyden and Stakhovitch. The signing was in progress when an order from the czar was communicated by the governor of Viborg directing the meeting to disperse.

All the members except the socialists returned at once to St. Petersburg, fully expecting arrest, but they were allowed to proceed to their homes. It was expected that the dissolution would be followed immediately by a great revolutionary outburst, and St. Petersburg was packed with troops, while martial law prevailed in other danger zones of south Russia. Many liberal newspapers were suppressed in the effort to prevent the circulation of the douma's appeal.

The various labor and socialist organizations, however, appeared to be holding their fire, and it was known that they had made elaborate preparations for the carrying out of a general strike which should include not only the factories, railroads and telegraphs, as on a former occasion, but now also the great mass of the peasants. Upon the loyalty of the army would depend the immediate issue. The strike was to be based on the demand for universal suffrage, which the leaders of all groups agree should determine the future form of government in Russia.

Bryan Leads Peace Congress.
The conference of the interparliamentary union was held at London last week, with nearly 600 delegates attending from twenty parliaments, including the Russian douma. Prime Minister Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman delivered the address of welcome in French and evoked great cheering by the greeting he gave to the Russian delegates, saying: "One could safely say that the douma, though dissolved, is sure to come to life again. The douma is dead! Long live the douma!" This was regarded as a bold utterance in view of the crisis in Russia, where the members of the douma had just called on the people to rise against the czar.

W. J. Bryan, who was among the American group, moved an amendment to the model treaty of arbitration drawn by the Brussels conference. It provides that when a dispute arises which is not within the arbitration agreement the parties shall invite the creation of an international commission of friendly powers before resorting to acts of violence. When Bryan spoke to this resolution Tuesday his eloquence fairly carried the congress by storm. He argued that if the facts could be separated from the question of honor the chances were a hundred to one that the parties to the dispute would settle both fact and honor without resort to arms; also it would give time for calm deliberation and "to mobilize public opinion for the compelling of a peaceful settlement." The time was coming when public opinion would be more and more a controlling force, the glad time "when the world will not stand idly by while two nations settle a difference without proposing that it may be settled by peaceful means." Then, pointing dramatically to the painting on the wall depicting the death of Nelson, Mr. Bryan exclaimed: "There is as much inspiration in a noble life as there is in a heroic death." He thought permanent peace could be established only upon the brotherhood of man. The resolution was then adopted unanimously.

Pan-American Conference On.

Representatives of all the independent nations of the western hemisphere, aggregating a population of 150,000,000 people, met at Rio de Janeiro July 23 and organized the third pan-American congress. Secretary Root arrived at Bahia on the Charleston and was officially welcomed by the Brazilian authorities. He and the Brazilian foreign minister were chosen honorary presidents of the congress.

Central America Pacified.

The peace conference for Guatemala, San Salvador and Honduras, who met on board the United States cruiser Marblehead, signed a treaty July 20 comprising six articles. Withdrawal of armies within three days and disarmament in eight days; exchange of prisoners and general amnesty recommended; to negotiate friendly commercial treaty within two months; any future disputes to be submitted to arbitration by the presidents of the United States and Mexico. This treaty to have the moral sanction of the mediating nation and of the other two Central American countries, Costa Rica and Nicaragua. President Roosevelt at once cabled congratulations to the presidents of the republics concerned.

Decorations of Dreyfus.

On the very spot in the courtyard of the military school at Paris where twelve years ago he was degraded, and in the presence of a distinguished assembly, Major Alfred Dreyfus, wearing the uniform of his rank, received July 21 the cross of chevalier of the Legion of Honor. Among the spectators stood Mme. Dreyfus and her little son, Brigadier General Picquart, who was mainly responsible for the reversal of Dreyfus' conviction and the literary friend of Zola, who aided in the campaign for revision.

Kipling's Protest In Verse.

Reflecting the views of the British colonists in South Africa, a poem by Rudyard Kipling in the London Standard declares that the policy of granting autonomy to the Transvaal means the retrocession of that country to the Boers. It depicts the colonists as being sold into bondage.

Sir Robert Hart Quits China.

Sir Robert Hart, the Englishman who for many years has been in charge of the Chinese customs, has decided definitely to retire and return to England. This confirms the indication that the new Chinese board intends to assume executive control.

King Edward Favors Bryan.

By request of King Edward, W. J. Bryan was escorted to Buckingham by Ambassador Reid for a private audience. For twenty minutes the American commoner and the British ruler talked, mostly about the peace conference. Later in the day 100 members of the peace conference were presented.

Demands of Persian Refugees.

More than 5,000 Persians have taken refuge in the British legation at Teheran, fearing Turkish persecution during the absence of the high clergy. The priests who left the city July 17 after holding a great reform meeting are now at Kum, eighty miles southwest of Teheran, a place of pilgrimage. The people demand the dismissal of the grand vizier, the return of the priests and the codification of the laws.

LEGAL-CRIMINAL

Florida Ice man In Jail.

Information was filed against an alleged ice trust in Jacksonville, Fla., and it was decided that W. S. Ware, one of the defendants and a prominent business man, should go to jail in order to make a test of the antitrust suit. The case will now be brought before the supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus. Other defendants gave bail.

Toledo Lawyers Exonerated.

Attorneys Tracy, Brown and Smith of Toledo, who were sentenced to fine and imprisonment by Judge Kinkade for presenting motions in the ice case offensive to the judge, have been relieved from this stigma by the decision of the circuit court reversing Kinkade. The circuit court holds that so long as a lawyer presents matters to a court decorously, whether they be true or false, he is not in contempt. The case will be taken by Judge Kinkade to the supreme court.

Cincinnati Ice Indictments.

Following recent indictments of coal men and laundry men for combining for restraint of trade in Cincinnati, the grand jury of that city reported indictments against fifteen ice men on the same charge. All gave bond for their appearance for trial.

John D. to Face Trial.

The attorney for John D. Rockefeller has notified the court at Findlay, O., that Mr. Rockefeller will appear at the proper time to answer for the charge preferred against him alleging illegal operations of his oil company and that he makes this definite promise in order to avoid the unpleasant publicity of seeming to evade the summons or a subpoena service. Mr. Rockefeller's home at Cleveland is being prepared for his reception.

Theaters May Exclude Critics.

The supreme court of New York, to which the case had been appealed, has decided that the action of the theater managers in excluding James S. Metcalf, the dramatic critic of Life, from their houses was not criminal. The decision says that, according to the conditions printed upon the tickets, any manager has the right to say who shall enter his house. It adds that whether the attacks of the critic were justified or not is immaterial.

Slaughter Houses Closed.

The Philadelphia board of health announced that twenty local slaughter houses, which were condemned as insanitary, had been closed permanently and sixteen others had been improved to order, while one proprietor who refused to obey was ordered prosecuted.

Novel Way to Outwit Mob.

Sheriff Brown of Somerset county, Md., succeeded in hanging the negro, William Lee, and in avoiding a determined lynching party by the unusual procedure of taking the prisoner and a ready-made gallows from the jail, at Baltimore, on board a boat to a barren island in the Chesapeake, but within the bounds of the county where the crime was committed. Lee had been sentenced to death three weeks before for assaulting two women.

Auto Owner Sent to Jail.

George W. Bryant of Yonkers, N. Y., has been sentenced to two months' imprisonment and a fine of $50 for violation of the speed law while riding in his automobile some time ago. His chauffeur also was arrested and received a similar prison sentence. Judge Beal in passing sentence said that the criminal liability of an automobile owner who was in the car at the time of a speed violation was governed by the same principles as applied to any other employer. An appeal was entered and Bryant was released on bail.

To Fight For Sage Estate.

Shortly after the death of Russell Sage it became known that he had left his entire fortune, estimated variously at from $63,000,000 to $93,000,000, to his wife and nothing whatever to specified charities. This was decidedly not to the satisfaction of the relatives, twenty-five nephews and nieces of Troy, N. Y., and it was announced that they would contest the will. It was said that Mrs. Sage was willing to compromise. Mr. Sage died at his country home, Lawrence Beach, N. Y., July 22. Had he lived until Aug. 4 he would have completed his ninetieth year. A peculiar feature of his burial was the proviso he had made that his body should be incased in a steel coffin and his tomb protected by automatic burglar alarms. Mr. Sage was one of the few very rich men of this day who started from the humblest wage earning position and climbed upward through rigid economy and shrewd investment. He had a reputation for being one of the close men of Wall street. On probate the will made it appear that the estate would total $75,000,000. It is said that the widow will devote all to charities.

Russell Sage.

EXECUTIVE

Appropriation Not Used.

The treasury department has received notice that the $200,000 appropriated for the purchase of a postoffice site in Toledo was $64,000 in excess of what the ground decided upon as being good enough will cost. It is the first time such a thing has ever happened and the department is much excited.

Pulajanes Again Vanquished.

General Wood cabled from Manila that the Twenty-fourth regiment had engaged a band of Pulajanes in the Visayas and that the enemy lost 150 while only one American was wounded. The Twenty-fourth is a negro regiment.

Sixteen Inch Gun Condemned.

The big 160,000 sixteen inch gun with a range of twenty-one miles which was made by the government has been discarded, it having been found that with the powerful smokeless powder now in use it would not stand the strain of fire and consequently would be more dangerous to those who fired it than to the enemy.

Bonaparte Fair to Women.

In making a promotion in the naval bureau of supplies and accounts Secretary Bonaparte refused to appoint a man who had been passed over a woman who had a higher efficiency record. The woman, Miss F. G. Thomas, got the place.

SUBURBAN PRESS ASSOCIATION OUTING.

To Hampton Beach and Canobie Lake Park.

A few years ago you wandered out from the hustle and bustle of the city and found a spot where some cool road goes winding between the hills. You watch a team come laboring along and hear the creaking of the old farm wagon. You go back there today and sit by the same old road, and whizz—sift, an electric car rushes by. This is the day of development and it was never more fully realized than on Monday last when over 100 members of the Suburban Press Association and their ladies were taken from Hampton Depot to Hampton Beach and Canobie Lake Park, a distance of 60 miles across the state of New Hampshire, as guests of the New Hampshire Electric Railways.

The party left Boston on the 8.50 a. m. train over the Eastern division of the Boston and Maine railroad, having been provided with a special car through the generosity of D. J. Flanders, General Passenger Agent of the road.

They were met at the Hampton depot by Superintendent C. P. Hayden who escorted them in special cars through the delightful town of Hampton with its gray old colonial mansions on either side of broad thoroughfares shaded by giant oaks, and along a level stretch of meadow land where every member of the party enjoyed the free sweep of the bracing and health-giving air from the sea, to Hampton beach, one of the most famous resorts on the New England coast, affording a wide sweeping ocean view over the smooth stone sea sand. Here the party received the glad hand from their old friend, Robert H. Derrah, the advertising agent of the company who in turn presented them to Col. W. H. Phinney, manager of the large Casino, theatre, two hotels, many up-to-date cottages, and the numerous attractions at the beach. Col. Phinney proved himself a prince of entertainers. His experience at the beach has afforded him ample opportunity to study the wants of his patrons and all can rest assured they will be served to the Queen's taste. No time was lost for in his genial, off-hand way, he led the party to the spacious dining room where luncheon was served; after which they were all free to mingle with the crowd of bathers, stroll along the shore, witness the attractive show or listen to the fine selections of the band. At 12.15 the specials were again taken for a trip along the shore, over the famous mile-long pile bridge, separating old ocean from the wavering salt marshes, then westward past model farms, fine country homes, hills, valley, orchards, meadows dotted with grazing cattle and pretty inland villages with ever changing variety of scenery, so diversified as to be a source of constant delight, arriving at Canobie Lake park at 2.45 p. m.

This is without exception one of the most picturesque, spacious and natural pleasure resorts in all New England, the beauty of the place being much improved by artistic flower beds, long reaches of lawn and fine rolled walks. Each member of the party was furnished with a badge by Mr. Williams, Superintendent of the park, entitling them to all the privileges of the place, such as the roller coaster, merry-ground, circle swing, box ball, dancing, the laughing gallery, etc. A sail around the fringed shore of the delightful lake in one of the many steam launches was very much enjoyed by the ladies, and on the return dinner was served in the large restaurant, laid out in the form of a St. George Cross, and under the able management of Messrs. Graves and Ramsdell who also manage the Canobie Lake hotel, a new home-like house with some thirty rooms furnished and equipped with all the modern appliances and an ideal place to spend a day, a week or month. After dinner, a general inspection of the park was made by the entire delegation. It is claimed that Canobie Lake park has more picnic and organization outings from all sections than any other pleasure resort and there is no wonder for the grounds are laid out with the necessary requirements, having a private grove with a large shelter tent, and a great ball ground all for the free and exclusive use of those who desire excursion, besides the numerous attractions.

Late in the afternoon the specials were again taken for a ride through the primrose forest to Lawrence, giving the party a good view of the great Salem race track. At Lawrence a special car was attached to the 6.29 train for Boston for the benefit of the editors, and in this way completed the most enjoyable outing in the history of the Association.

Our boys' pant cloth remnants are not the ordinary cotton and shoddy mixtures. They are the finest worsted fancies and all wool men's wear serge, Farr's Remnant store, 38 Appleton street, Lawrence.

The Railroad Station and Crossing.

The meeting on Wednesday evening was an interesting one. The discussion of the article containing a request by the B. & M. R. R. was helpful in clearing the air of many uncertainties that have long kept our people guessing, and in showing how difficult of attainment are some of the things all of us desire.

In the first place the plan, and the explanation of it, made it clear that the railroad owns at the present time more land in area than that which they are asking for as a part of the new layout of School street. The corner of "the Boulders" adjoining Essex street was known to be theirs when the work first began on the improvement of this long first dump, and was improved through the very generous assistance of the railroad at that time.

The plan also showed a lay-out of School street that provides a very much larger area for carriages at the station than is now provided, and much greater convenience for patrons who take their carriages at the station itself. The present cramped quarters about the station have made a condition that has long tried the public patience; there has neither been room for the carriages nor the foot passengers.

The question of drainage received very proper and intelligent discussion, and the amendment that was adopted was a wise provision for the town to insist upon. It is difficult to conceive of the railroad neglecting such an important thing as the proper drainage around property upon which they are to spend upwards of $50,000, but that need will be doubly safeguarded by the instructions now given to the Selectmen by the town meeting.

The discussion brought out a strong demand for the abolition of the grade crossing, and has started new interest in that very important work. It was very clear that this particular phase of railroad improvement was not before the meeting for discussion last night, and we fail to see how the question of a new station is involved to any great extent in the change of the crossing.

They are separate and distinct problems, and must be considered as such, but the crossing question is certainly an important matter for study. Now that it has been opened up, it ought not to be allowed to be forgotten again. Is there any better way for it to be kept alive and agitated to at least a better understanding of it, than for the town at its next annual meeting to appoint a commission to study the problem in all of its many difficult phases? As was stated at Wednesday's meeting, we do not believe the present generation will see any work done upon this crossing, but a study and plan might wisely be provided for at as early a date as possible.

The unanimous vote of the town upon the main question, after the various side issues had been disposed of, makes sure a new railroad station for the town. For nine years the writer has been working for this end, in the belief that no one improvement that could be secured for the town would really mean so much as this would. The railroad station of the town or city is being looked upon more and more as the town's welcoming hand. Andover has for many years presented to the stranger anything but a "glad hand" in this respect. Rather, it has been a grimy, slimy hand, stretched forth from the surroundings of a forbidding face and a tattered gown. May there be few further delays in the coming of the proposed changes.

Editorial Cinders.

No summer, in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, has witnessed such serious rain storms as have marked the present season. No sooner has one washout been repaired than another is created, and the street department appropriation is feeling the unlooked for drain very severely. We must certainly begin to pave the gutters of our more important hill roadways.

Andover was prompt and generous with its welcome to the French church people in their plans for a burial ground within her borders, and that was well. But it would give us all much more satisfaction to welcome the live representatives of this excellent citizenship than to care for their bodies after death.

"Is this the road to Andover?" yelled a flying form from an automobile at the foot of Andover Hill early this morning. The machine was headed for Reading, and its occupants were, as usual, bent on "getting there." When told that they were in Andover they hauled up with a roar, whipped out their road map, and asked if their next town was Reading. An affirmative answer turned on the juice, and in a few minutes they were probably in Reading, without knowledge as to whether the sun shone or not, or whether God's country was green or pink. And bye and bye, as the night shades fall, they will look at their odometer and take delight in its record of 417 miles in nine hours and eleven minutes.

AN HARMONIOUS MEETING

Citizens Pass All Articles in Warrant without a Dissenting Vote. Judge Poor Presides.

About 200 citizens assembled in the Town hall on Wednesday evening to attend a special Town meeting called for the purpose of acting on the following articles:

Article 1st. To choose a moderator to preside at said meeting.

Article 2nd. To see if the Town will accept the gift of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) made by the will of Mrs. Helen G. Coburn to form a permanent endowment fund for Memorial Hall.

Article 3rd. To see if the town will discontinue a portion of School street, according to a plan submitted by the Boston & Maine Railroad for a new station and for improving the approaches to the same.

Article 4th. To see if the town will vote to allow a certain lot of land on Corbett street to be used as a cemetery for the purpose of burial.

Article 5th. To transact any other business that may legally come before said meeting.

Promptly at 7.30 the first article was taken up and Judge George H. Poor was the unanimous choice for moderator.

The second article was then taken up and the following motion was accepted without a dissenting vote. "That the gift of $25,000 made by the will of Mrs. Helen G. Coburn, late of Boston, be gratefully accepted, said gift to form a permanent endowment fund for the Memorial hall, the income to be used for the library or other purposes connected with the uses of Memorial."

Article third was next taken up and there was a great deal of interest shown in the question by the citizens. The discussion which followed the reading of the article showed that the town wished for the change of the location of School street only if the change would be a benefit to the town.

Mr. Rowell, an engineer of the Boston & Maine Railroad was present with a plan of the proposed changes and he explained fully the change and what the change was asked for. He said that it was the intention of the road to build a new station here and it was necessary to have a larger tract of land to build upon. He claimed that by giving the road this necessary land, the proposed change could be made, and at the same time the appearance of the surroundings would be improved. He added that at the present time the road holds a title to some of the land now used as a part of School street.

Judge Poor said that the street was laid out by the highway commissioners over 30 years ago. He continued by saying that the question was plain to all; if the town vote to discontinue School street as per plan the railroad will build a station of no expense to the town.

The location of the new station was then asked for and Mr. Rowell said that it would sit in almost the same spot as the present one.

E. Kendall Jenkins thought that if the station sat as low as the present one there would be a great deal of trouble from the drainage. He hoped that there would be an improvement on this score.

Mr. Rowell said that this was a detail which had not been studied but he was sure that it would be attended to in a satisfactory manner.

Charles W. Clark wanted to know if the crossings at Essex and Pearson streets were to be the same and being answered in the affirmative he said that he was pleased to hear that the town was to have a new station but he thought that it should be located farther south, away from the crossing. He thought that much danger would be obliterated if the station was at a greater distance from the crossing.

John L. Smith thought that the great question to be considered in regard to the new station was that of proper drainage. He said that the road should be compelled to install proper draining receptacles if the plans were accepted. On the question of accidents his opinion was that there was not as much danger from the crossing as the station is now located as there would be if it was located farther south over the trains would run much slower over the crossing as they entered or left the station.

Alfred L. Ripley said that he thought that there was too much danger at the present crossing and he believed that it was the sense of this meeting that the grade crossing should be eliminated and that the meeting should take some action in regard to it before the road should be given permission to make their proposed changes.

Speaker Cole said that he would like to say Amen to Mr. Ripley's suggestion but that he would have to disagree. He said that the question of grade crossings was one which the Railroad Commissioners have to deal with and they are abolished in such places as they decide. There is annually appropriated by the legislature $500,000 for this work and the towns and road are taxed apportionately. There would be a long process to go through before Andover could expect to abolish the present crossing and there is not one chance in 1000 that we will ever live to see it.

In regard to the new station Mr. Cole said that he had been working for nine years to secure a new station and he believed it would be welcomed in Andover, as the greatest improvement that could come to the town, as it would give a stranger a good first impression of the town.

Mr. Ripley thought that if the matter was brought before the railroad commissioners in as forcible a manner as the last argument had been presented, it would be attended to before many years.

P. J. Daly was satisfied that the road would do everything that was right and thought that the privilege should be granted.

The original motion with the following proviso was then put before the meeting and was voted unanimously: Provided that the Railroad corporation will undertake to properly construct School street as shown by the proposed new location, and will provide suitable gutters, culverts and drains to take care of the surface water from Essex and School streets collecting at and near the station.

The fourth article in the warrant regarding the use of a piece of land on Corbett street as a cemetery was then taken up. Attorney Mahoney represented the petitioners and he explained the situation of the land and the reasons why the petition should be granted. He said that it was to be used as a burial ground for the French Catholics of South Lawrence who live just over the line from where the land is situated. Rev. Varnum Lincoln thought that Lawrence should provide for its own inhabitants. The motion was put however and there was not a dissenting vote.

As there was no other business the meeting adjourned.

Pay Your Dog's License.

The following is a part of a warrant which has been put in the hands of Officer Herbert L. White by Chairman B. Frank Smith of the Board of Selectmen.

To Herbert L. White, Police Officer of the Town of Andover:

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to proceed forthwith to kill or cause to be killed all dogs within the said town not duly licensed and collared according to the provisions of chapter one hundred and two of the Revised Laws and you are further required to make and enter complaint against the owner or keeper of every such dog.

Officer White says that he has a list of about 250 owners of dogs which have not been licensed and he intends to carry the law to its fullest extent if the licenses are not paid at once. He will call at the homes of everyone on his list and if the owners of the dogs have not paid the license he will give them a chance to do so but if they show no inclination to pay he will at once shoot the dogs.

Fire in Marland Village.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson in Marland Village was threatened by fire yesterday morning and it was only by the prompt action of neighbors that serious damage did not result.

The fire was started by the breaking of a clothesline filled with clothes which hung over a gas stove. Mrs. Robinson had been ironing all the forenoon and as usual she had finished her work she went to the home of a friend on an errand. A neighbor happening to go into the yard for a minute noticed smoke coming from Mrs. Robinson's house and she immediately notified her.

On entering the kitchen they found that there was a brisk fire burning in one corner of the room, the clothes as well as a rocking chair being ablaze. A few buckets of water was sufficient to put the fire out. Mrs. Robinson says that the damage will probably amount to $25. It was not necessary to call the fire department.

Burglars Still at Work.

The petty burglaries still go on. It is one of the most peculiar cases that the local police has had to deal with for a long time and one which is hard to clear up. To them it seems that the breaks must be the result of boyish pranks with a dash of adventure, or else it must be the work of a maniac. One of the most peculiar features of the breaks is that in none of them has anything of value been stolen, although property worth several dollars has been within easy reach.

There were four breaks reported to have taken place between Sunday night and Monday morning. One was at the home of Frank B. Grout on Walnut avenue. The intruders gained an entrance to the house through a window on the first floor but not a sound was heard by either Mr. or Mrs. Grout throughout the night. On investigation next morning it was discovered that only some lemon pie and milk had been stolen.

The home of Patrick English was also visited on the same night. Here the burglars attempted to force an entrance by prying up a window but they were unsuccessful, being evidently frightened away before their work had been accomplished. Some damage was done to the window sill with the instrument used in prying the window.

The house occupied by the gardener employed on the estate of Peter D. Smith was also visited that night but only a can of milk was taken.

A short distance away from this house the burglars broke into the home of Arthur Boutwell. An entrance was gained to the pantry through a window but as the door to the main house was locked, the intruders retraced their steps and going around to the back of the house they forced the bulkhead. The next morning Mr. Boutwell discovered that the burglars had carried a piece of lighted paper around with them in the cellar in their search for booty. The charred pieces were found by him in various places. Footsteps were also found on the stairway where an attempt had been made to get into the house.

As the breaks are in different parts of the town and at long distances from each other it seems that they may have been committed by an organized band.

WEST PARISH.

The C. E. society of the Abbott District held a very successful lawn party at the home of Daniel Fitzpatrick, Thursday evening. Ice cream, lemonade, bananas and peanuts were offered for sale. A large platform was erected upon the green, where the following program was given: March, by children; readings, "Raven," "Maud Muller," Mrs. Annie Wilcox; play, "Our Aunt Robertena," characters, John Henderson, Mrs. Daniel Fitzpatrick, Mrs. L. R. Bailey, Misses Susie Cutler, Bertha Maddox, Mabel Bailey; solo, Mr. Heald of Lawrence; children's exercise, "The Greatest Treasure," Mabel Bailey, Ethel Bailey, Grace Maddox, Helele, Wilcox, Esther Henderson; selections, Perley Gilbert; children's exercise, "The Three Missions," Grace Maddox, Ethel Bailey, Gertrude Morgan. Every number on the program was well executed, and much interest is due the committee.

Miss Grace Livingston returned this week from a year's visit with relatives in Pasadena, California.

BASEBALL

The Andover Guild lost a 15 inning game, Saturday, to the Centrals of No. Andover, by the score of 6 to 5. The local boys put up a great game against larger ball players. Ryley, for the Guild, pitched great ball, striking out 19 men, giving two bases on balls, and allowing but four hits. It was the best and longest game of ball ever played on Grogan's field. Leslie and Sullivan put up a great game, Sullivan accepting six chances without an error and making one hit out of the four made. Leslie was weak at the bat, but played a great fielding game, accepting nine chances with one error. He got all three out in one inning. Stewart didn't have much to do, having four chances with one error. He robbed Scofield of a hit in the second inning that looked good for extra bases. He made one hit and two runs. The fielders had an easy time, only four balls going to the outfield. Haddon caught a great game, but he let a ball go by in the fifteenth inning with a man on third. There was some doubt about the ball hitting the batter, but the runs came in and that ended the game.

For the Centrals, Joyce pitched a great game, striking out 22 men and giving the same number of hits and bases on balls as Ryley. He made two hits out of the four made with a total of three. Carroll, Epsy, Scofield and Morrissey excelled for the Centrals. The Guild do not play next Saturday.

The Summary: Stolen bases, Stewart 5, Haddon 4, Cronin 3, Spencer 3, Ryley 1, Sullivan, Carroll, Holmes, Epsy. Hits, Joyce 2, Cronin 2, Sullivan, Stewart, Morrissey, Spencer. Two base hit, Joyce. Double play, Bean to Epsy, Cronin (unassisted). First base on balls, off Ryley 2, Joyce 2. Struck out, by Joyce 22, Ryley 19.

CLEVER WORK BY OFFICERS.

Men Thieves Captured in the Act by Police Last Saturday Night.

Joseph Fraize and John Cronin, two Andover youths of 15 and 16 years respectively, were arrested by the local police last Saturday night for hen thieving. The young men were caught in the act red handed and to the police much credit is due for the very able manner in which the capture was made.

Sometime during Saturday one of the officers was given a tip that the coop owned by William B. Cheever on Chestnut street would be visited and consequently Officers Jaquith, Pomeroy and May were chosen to guard the place and make the arrests if the coop was broken into. At the appointed hour the officers secreted themselves in the tall grass around the property and shortly before nine two forms were seen walking from the street directly for one of the coops in the yard.

A signal had been agreed upon by the officers to be given at the most opportune time and after the marauders had been busy filling their bags with fowl for several minutes, Officer May rushed for the coop. The boys evidently saw him coming for both started to run. Cronin ran through the field toward Punchard school and as he was in the lead the officer kept after him, passing Fraize. When Stony Brook was reached Cronin plunged into it with Officer May at his heels. Here the boy was taken and was at once locked up. Fraize succeeded in making good his escape but a good description was secured of him and he was later taken at his home by officers May, Jaquith and White.

In questioning the boys regarding their thieving, the police learned that they had a good market for the fowl that they had stolen, B. Korpelan, a Jew rag pedler agreeing to buy all that they would bring to him. The boys claimed that it was he who urged them to steal and it was at his request that they went to Mr. Cheever's coop on Saturday.

Korpelan was ordered to appear before Judge Stone on Monday morning to answer to the charge of receiving stolen property and he was represented by Attorney Sullivan of Lawrence.

Fraize and Cronin testified that they had started to steal on the night of July 3rd after having been urged by Korpelan to earn some money for the Fourth of July by stealing chickens and selling them to him. This they agreed to do and on that night they visited the coops of Parker Cochran on Punchard avenue and stole five. For these they received $3.50 from Korpelan. At a later date they again stole and Korpelan was eager to buy.

On Saturday the boys claimed that they had made arrangements to meet Korpelan in his barn to receive the chickens which were to be stolen that night. He was on hand as it was later proved.

Officer May was then called and he testified that after he had captured Cronin he went to the barn of the defendant and saw him standing in the doorway as if waiting for the boys.

Korpelan said that he had never asked the boys to steal for him and that Cronin had brought hens to him from his father who has a farm in West Parish. After carefully weighing the testimony of both parties, Judge Stone found the defendant guilty and fined him $15 which was paid. At a meeting of the Selectmen Monday afternoon Korpelan's junk dealer's license was revoked.

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the cases of Cronin and Fraize were tried for hen thieving and each of the boys pleaded guilty. After a good talking to by Judge Stone in which he spoke of the seriousness of the crime he put the boys on probation for six months with the understanding that if a complaint should come up again he would prefer the present charge against them.

Choir Boys at Camp.

The Christ church choir boys left town Monday morning on the 9.04 train for their annual camping trip at Canobie lake. Organist and Choirmaster John Bacheider was in direct charge. On the train they were joined by a delegation from the choir of the New church, Newtonville, who will also spend the week in camp with the local boys.

Monday afternoon the tents were pitched in the vicinity of Canobie lake where the boys will meal during their outing.

They will spend eight days in camp with such sports as fishing, swimming, boating, baseball and cricket. Wednesday will be set apart as visitors' day, and all the choir boys who are not camping are invited to come to the lake as guests of Mr. Bacheider.

The principal event of the day will be a box ball tournament in which all the choir boys will participate.

There are 13 boys in the local party and they occupy two tents. Swimming will be enjoyed in the Flume brook which the boys will dam.

The following are included in the local party: Organist John Bacheider, George Collins, Everett Collins, Philip Cheever, Harold Cates, Blanchard Frye, Kenneth Foster, Herbert Holt, Wilson Knipes, Chester Morrissey, William Sellars, Gordon Whitman, Blanchard Ralph and Lindsay Ralph.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

An Interesting Letter Dealing with Problems Regarding the Local Institution.

The following is an article written by Rev. John L. Sewall of Randolph, Mass., for the Congregationalist regarding the Andover Theological Seminary:

A hundred years ago the endowments of Andover Theological Seminary were consecrated to the task of furnishing ministers for the Congregational churches of New England. The gift brought a glad and immediate response. The churches sent their sons and eagerly awaited their return. Its trustees were identified with our denominational interests, and broadly regarded of them. Its instructors were honored and influential because of their manifested sympathy with what the churches were trying to do; genuine leaders, in constant demand for pulpits and platform. Young men in large numbers were drawn to their lecture-rooms and were thence called to churches. In a word, the seminary gave itself with conspicuous success to meeting the desires and needs of those for whom it was founded, and enjoyed abundant prosperity.

If those now administering the affairs of this institution desire a like prosperity in the future, they must seek it by similarly supplying what the churches of today want. If there be one voice more than another which is today compelling attention in our land, it is that of the foreigner. Recent pages of The Congregationalist have magnified this call until it would seem that no one among its readers could be indifferent to it. Our churches are hearing this appeal, and are beginning to want, as well as need, a new ministry to the unevangelized foreigner.

This would require a class of students and a body of instruction differing in some respects from what is now found at Andover. The message and the method must be free from metaphysical and medievalism. With the discipline of ancient languages must be joined, in proportions yet to be wisely fixed, a familiarity with many living dialects, until both the tongues and the spirit of Pentecost shall be repeated in our midst. And in every line of preparation there must be the thoroughness for which the seminary has ever stood.

Some such work is now demanded, if Andover is to make its maximum instead of its minimum contribution to our churches as a whole. In a certain way its service has been for several years superfluous; that is, all its regular work could have been done with equal efficiency in other New England seminaries without causing them extra expense. Though nominally graduating twenty-one men in the last five years, it has added, so far as appears, only fourteen to our list of ordained ministers, and that at a cost of about $200,000. With about a million dollars of productive funds and nearly one-fourth of that amount in lands and buildings, these meager returns to be placed over against the expectations and hopes of the donors.

In contrast to this condition certain facts are finding added emphasis every day. We have a serious foreign problem at home. Our churches are being awakened to its meaning. They could be wondrously aroused and inspired by a definite proposition from Andover to come to their help in this matter. This has been brought to the attention of the seminary authorities in a recent concrete case. A short time ago there were earnestly asked by a committee of the Norfolk Conference of Congregational churches to grant a slight favor to a group of fourteen theological students who were in training under one of the Finnish pastors of this conference. These students were housed in most inadequate and unfit quarters; the request was that they be allowed to occupy for a year some dormitory and recitation-rooms in Phillips Hall which had stood vacant for some time. It has been greatly regretted by those presenting this request that the seminary did not see fit to grant it, instead of turning over its largest dormitory, as is now proposed, to the uses of Phillips Academy.

The importance of using the seminary's resources for the exact purpose for which they were given appears when we merely consider the proper use of trust funds, where any deliberate and needless non-use would be misuse. The matter becomes urgent when we study the general denominational situation at the present hour. At the Boston Congregational Club recently heard, Connecticut is calling for well trained Italian and French ministers; Hartford Seminary would open such a department at once if it had the funds. Oberlin is equipped for the Slavic instruction; but Chicago's foreign work is so financially imperiled that a committee is even now being organized here in New England to raise funds among our churches for its relief.

It may be in order to suggest that this committee begin its solicitations with the trustees of Andover, and seek to open their eyes to a worthy use of some of the $10,000 of accumulated student aid funds which they are holding in present and prospective idleness, and which are increasing at the rate of $1500 annually. Many of these graduates from the foreign departments of Chicago Seminary are now serving New England churches. Why not transfer the training of such men to a New England seminary that cannot find ways for spending its revenue, instead of asking our churches to duplicate Andover's unused funds and send them to Chicago? In this connection should be mentioned the International College at Springfield, which might be relieved of some of its perplexities if it were co-ordinated with Andover so as to furnish preparatory training for the higher grades of theological instruction.

It is easy to point out difficulties in this proposition, especially if one has no marked sympathy with it; but a perfectly plain road for Andover's future welfare does not seem to be just now in sight. It may be said that this scheme will lower the high standard of scholarship for which Andover has long stood. If this is to be seriously pressed as calling for a summary refusal of aid to the foreign work, there are several considerations which must be frankly faced, even though the mere mention of some of them is a delicate and unpleasant matter.

It will be in order, first of all, to make an impartial inquiry as to exactly how high have been the ability and attainments of the students in Andover during the last five years; how far their instruction and work have been approved by examining committees during this period; and what class of churches has sought their services. It must be admitted that there is a widespread feeling that it would be a good thing to readjust the seminary's standards until they descend from the cloudy summits of philosophical speculation and subjective criticism to the level of a practical ministry to the needs of common men and women in the ordinary church. Such a change would seem to many an exaltation and not a lowering of ideals. The exhortation recently given by Prof. G. F. Moore at Cambridge is in point in enforcing this contention—"The first business of a divinity school is not to make the most learned scholars but the best ministers."

The actual judgment of the churches as shown in their pastoral choices is the final verdict upon both the standards and the product of any seminary; an application of this test, in the present instance suggests at least the possibility of some wise readjustment. It is significant that when one of our strongest Boston churches was seeking an efficient worker for its mission chapel, it was obliged after disappointments in other directions to turn to the Methodist school on Mt. Vernon street, which is becoming a customary resort of our churches for both transient and permanent supplies, and that here was found at once what was wanted.

The truest way, however, to meet this outcry against lowering standards is to challenge the statement of fact. Is it a descent from noble tradition to train men to work for the larger half of the population of Massachusetts today? Will it be degrading to equip suitably ministers for the Finns and Swedes, the Italians and French? Surely this is an unfortunate hour to suggest any limitation of our interest and effort to the wealthy and cultured classes. It is not beneath the dignity of Andover to train ministers for any human beings, at home or abroad, who need the gospel. Has not this been one of its glories in the past? Is not attention to this foreign work in our borders a return to past power, rather than a disgraceful departure? Now that the foreigner has come to its very gates, is Andover to remain blind and indifferent?

It is time to recall the real objects for which the endowments of our most ancient school of theology were given. There is no suggestion in the original statutes, expressed or implied, that only ministers for our cultured and aristocratic churches were to receive help from its funds. Their income was manifestly intended to insure the largest possible succession of gospel preachers for any churches or groups of people who need them, throughout all coming years. There is no doubt as to our present need of ministers for the incoming foreigner; and we cannot give too high a quality of practical instruction to such

POLITICAL

Republican Campaign Confab.

As was expected, President Roosevelt had a group of Republican leaders with him at Sagamore Hill last week, namely, Speaker Cannon, Chairman Sherman of the congressional committee, Representatives Loudenslager and McKinley, secretary and treasurer of the same committee. Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania also was present by coincidence, not by invitation. The president expressed himself as well pleased with plans of the committee and in accord with their ideas. Sherman said that the president's keen interest was a valuable asset for the campaign. Headquarters were opened in the St. James building, at New York city. Unofficially it was made known that the tariff policy would be distinctly stand pat, with the proviso that later the friends of the tariff would make the necessary adjustments. The keynote of the campaign will be prosperity and the party's record.

A Popular Campaign Fund.
A departure in Republican party methods has been made by Chairman Sherman in sending out thousands of letters to members of the party in all parts of the country asking for $1 contributions for the purpose of returning a Republican congress. While the Republicans say that they were compelled to take this course on account of the hostility of the trusts, they think it will strike a popular chord. This appeal is to be made also through posters and by means of notices in the party press. It is pointed out that if one-half of those who voted for Roosevelt respond they will have a fund of $3,812,245.

Programme For Trades Unionists.
The executive council of the American Federation of Labor has issued its general campaign programme to "all organized labor and friends in the United States." It states that congress has been so "preoccupied looking after the interests of vast corporations and predatory wealth" and members in their rush for the almighty dollar that "they have had no time and as little inclination" to support the legislation asked in the interest of the laboring man. It says patience ceased to be a virtue, and hence the March 21 bill of grievances presented to the administration. Appeal now is made to the American people "to demonstrate their determination that this republic of ours shall continue to be of, for and by the people, rather than of, for and by the almighty dollar." It is recommended to name only union men or to influence the nomination of labor men by whatever party is found most available. For this work a committee of three has been chosen—namely, Samuel Gompers, James O'Connell and Frank Morrison.

Gompers Assails Cannon.
Speaking to the Central Federated union of New York, Mr. Gompers said that Speaker Cannon was at the head of the machine which organized labor must fight and that "Uncle Joe has more delirium in him toward organized labor than any man I know of." Mr. Gompers said that the movement was spreading over the country like wildfire.

Hardly to Try Gamblers.
By order of Governor Hanly of Indiana, the gamblers arrested in Taggart's casinos at French Lick Springs and West Baden are to be tried at once. The justice will have to order the destruction of the gambling paraphernalia, valued at $40,000.

COMMERCIAL

New York Bonds Go Begging.

The offer of $1,000,000 of nine year 4 per cent assessment bonds of New York city did not tempt investors, and the comptroller had to negotiate with bond houses. Bids were received, however, for the thirty year bonds to the amount of $10,500,000.

Trust to Control Sulphur.

The Union Sulphur company hereafter is to have exclusive handling of the output of the sulphur wells of Sicily, thus effecting virtually a world monopoly.

George Westinghouse Assailed.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Westinghouse Electric company at Pittsburgh charges were made that President Westinghouse had used the company's funds for private ventures. Nevertheless he was able to retain control.

Big Life Insurance Slump.

The big life insurance companies located in New York experienced a decrease of $151,724,854 in 1905 as compared with 1904, according to the annual report of the state superintendent of insurance. The New York companies issued 567,379 policies, insuring $966,848,898, while the companies of other states issued 420,323 policies, insuring $785,923,331. The gross assets of the New York companies were $2,651,316,714, or an increase of nearly $200,000,000. The income of the New York companies was $361,744,172 and that of other states $257,081,296. An analysis of disbursements shows that $258,978,566 was paid to policy holders, while the cost of management and dividends amounted to $138,851,914.

Award of Panama Bonds.

The treasury department made awards on the 21st, under the $30,000,000 issue of Panama bonds, and the average price realized by the government was $104. Half of the issue went to Fisk & Robinson of New York, $3,000,000 to the Merchants' National bank of Philadelphia, $5,819,508 to Samuel Byerley of New York, a clerk who represented an unknown syndicate, and the remainder in smaller amounts. Secretary Shaw thought the bidding showed the appreciation of the government's efforts to build the canal in the shortest possible time. He will at once designate as depositories all national banks whose bids were $103.50 or more. In this way he expects to put in circulation at least $20,000,000.

It turns out that Byerley, who obtained an award of $5,800,000 of Panama bonds with only the investment of a two cent stamp to forward his bid, represented only himself, but that he has succeeded in disposing of his award to a banking house on terms that would enable him to make good by depositing the cash Aug. 1 and leave him a margin of $10,000 profit.

Insuring Against Balloons.

A London insurance company is now issuing policies against damages done by balloons. As the first claim was paid a few days ago for broken glass caused by ballast thrown out of a balloon when close to the ground, the interesting legal question of trespass is already being discussed, some maintaining that real estate title enables the holder to protect himself against the invasion of the air above his property.

Western Freight Rate War.

Railroad rivalry for the grain carrying trade resulted last week in a cut of 2 1/2 cents by the St. Paul on every hundred pounds of flour and wheat between Missouri river points and Chicago. The Great Western had quoted 8 cents on flour as against 10 1/2 charged by the other lines. Immediately the Great Western met the St. Paul on wheat and flour and quoted a seven cent rate on corn, oats, rye and barley. The Washburn took a hand with a rate of 18 1/2 cents from the Missouri to New York. The low rates are all limited to Aug. 23, two days before the new rate law goes into effect.

Morgan Sees Prosperity.

On returning from a five months' trip in Europe J. P. Morgan shocked the New York reporters by treating them affably for the first time in his life and by tolerating the snapshots. He announced sentimentally that the United States is prosperous and that the present slump in stock prices meant nothing—the law of balance would assert itself. He virtually admitted that the steel trust would redeem itself by declaring a dividend on its common stock. Referring to the death of his Wall street competitor, Russell Sage, he remarked: "I was not surprised to hear of it. We all grow old and must pass away."

Phoenix Disappoints San Francisco.

Over 900 San Francisco policy holders of the Phoenix Insurance company of Vienna, Austria, have been notified that they could not expect a dollar, as the company had decided that all policies became null and void in that city by reason of the earthquake. The amount of the claims is $1,738,000.

INDUSTRIAL

Johnson's Three Cent Fare Fight.

The municipal three cent fare street railway company organized by Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, which was capitalized a few months ago by numerous small popular subscriptions, recently applied for street franchises, with the proviso that the city might revoke any franchise or cut its fare at any time. The maximum fare was placed at 3 cents, with universal transfers, the programme on which Mayor Johnson has been twice elected.

The employees of this company, known as the Municipal Traction company, began tearing up some of the tracks of the Cleveland Electric Street Railway company by order of the mayor, who was bent on taking away some of that company's franchises for its refusal to co-operate with the new company as to transfers and trackage. The removal of tracks was on a street where the new company had obtained a franchise. The Cleveland Electric then obtained a court injunction against this proceeding. When this was served on the mayor he stuffed the writ in his pocket and told the men to go on with their work. Later the mayor was ordered to appear in court for contempt. The offer of the old company was to give seven tickets for 25 cents and certain additional facilities.

German Food Adulterations.

The bureau of manufactures has a report from Consul Brittain of Kehl, Germany, giving statistics of food adulterations in that country. In 1898 the number of prosecutions was 3,000 and in 1903 6,000, and it was found that many large firms employed chemists to discover scientific food adulterations.

Superior-Hudson Bay Canal.

Two parties of surveyors left Winnipeg, Man., last week to run lines north and south for a canal to connect Lake Superior and Hudson bay. They are in the employ of James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern, who thus expects to tap a vast virgin territory in the wilds of Canada. The line will be surveyed this year only to Lake Winnipeg. The southern end of the canal will be at Port Arthur unless the engineers find a route up Rainey river through the Lake of the Woods, but it is thought that the current of Rainey river will be found too swift.

Last Chicago Cable Car.

Citizens of Chicago made the occasion of the last cable car's trip, July 22, one of rejoicing. It marked the end of twenty-four years of cable service on the State street line and the beginning of the electric service. An excited crowd thronged the streets as the cable train moved slowly along, almost tearing the cars to pieces in the effort to get souvenirs. Headlight, bell rope, curtains and everything that could be got loose was carried off.

World's Wine Production.

A French official statement just issued puts the world's production of wine in 1905 at 3,775,000,000 gallons. France, including Alsace and Tunis, led with 1,710,000,000 gallons and Italy came next with 856,520,000 gallons. Spain's wine crop amounted to 128,000,000 gallons. The United States produced only 34,000,000 gallons, or 4 per cent of the world's output. France is the largest importer as well as the largest exporter of wine.

LABOR

Labor Legislation Invalid.

The Illinois law of 1903 requiring coal mine operators to provide and maintain washrooms outside each mine for the use of employees has been declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court on the ground that it is class legislation.

Strike Leaders Indicted.

President Shea of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters at Chicago was indicted with forty-two other leaders of the union, some of whom were indicted last year. Among the twenty-seven counts are conspiracy to injure the business of Marshall Field company, Siegel-Cooper company, the Fair and others, including the express companies.

Ultimatum of Mine Owners.

The Indiana mine operators served notice on the officers of the Miners' union that unless the men on strike should be ordered back at once on the terms of the operators as to the removal of slate they will cease to enforce the check off rule for the collection of assessments.

SCIENTIFIC

Wireless Word From Wellman.

Walter Wellman, whose expedition is now in camp on Dane's island, preparatory to starting for the north pole in his airship, has now put himself in communication with Ammerfest by wireless telegraphy. Dane's island is about 600 miles from the pole. Mr. Wellman says that everything is progressing favorably and that he hopes to be ready for the supreme test by the middle of August.

Light on Cancer Mystery.

Dr. Bashford of the Imperial Cancer Research Fund laboratory of London reports notable progress from recent experiments on mice. He says he is now able to reproduce at will all the features of spontaneous cancer in mice and to protect healthy mice from all consequences of inoculation with experimental cancer. Dr. Bashford warns, however, that nothing but harm could come from leaping to rash conclusions as to the treatment of cancer in human beings. It was not yet even possible to arrest natural cancer occurring in mice.

Doctors Investigate Ballooning.

Drs. Ottlinger and Fulton, members of the Philadelphia Aero club, went up in the balloon Orient last week to test the effect of air voyaging on the human body. They ascended 9,000 feet and were up five hours. They were led to believe that such trips will aid in eye and heart cases.

Cotton Immune From Weevil.

The Louisiana state crop pest commission announces that recent experiments conducted by its entomologist, Wilmet Newell, on their experimental farms have developed a new variety of cotton which is believed to be immune from the attacks of the boll weevil. The variety is known as triumph cotton, and fields planted with it this season are now safely advanced toward a successful crop.

MISCELLANEOUS

Field Estate Tax $2,800,000.

The Chicago tax board assessed the personal property of the Field estate at $130,000,000 and the real estate at $50,000,000. The reviewers say that Field for years escaped taxation on the bulk of his estate, and including back taxes, the executors will be asked to pay a total tax of $2,800,000.

Leprosy Buffeted in Box Car.

George Rossett, a Syrian resident of West Virginia, who was smitten with leprosy and who was well supplied with money, recently started for New York by taking possession of a box car on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Everywhere trainmen warned people not to go near the leper, and Rossett had got as far as Philadelphia when the New Jersey authorities gave notice that they would not let him enter the state, and the City of Brotherly Love forced the railroad to take him away. His car was sidetracked at Baltimore, where a priest gave him friendly ministrations.

Both Dowle and Voliva Out.

The decision of Judge Landis at Chicago is that control of Zion City be taken from its former head, Dowle, as well as its present manager, Voliva. John C. Hatley, a Chicago capitalist, was appointed receiver and a new overseer is to be chosen at an election called by the judge in September.

METHUEN.

SUCCESSFUL LAWN PARTY HELD.

A successful lawn party was held Wednesday night on the grounds of Second Primitive Methodist church for the benefit of the church building fund and it was a fine success. The affair was arranged under the direction of the building committee, which includes William H. Craven, Mrs. John T. Dugdale, Mrs. Albert Emsley, Mrs. Thomas White and Mrs. Fred Donkin.
The grounds were attractively decorated with lanterns and the tables for the sale of various articles were prettily decorated. The orchestra was in attendance and music was discoursed under the direction of Joseph Silverthorne. An entertainment, consisting of a fan drill, with Miss Belle Porter leader and Miss Dorothy Amis planist, was given. Those participating included Maud Frye, Alice Horrocks, Eva Crompton, Bertha Trebble, Maud Clark, Florence Brooks, Lizzie Stormont, Amy Emsley, Lizzie Silverthorne, Helen Frye and Mary Jarvis.
The various tables were presided over as follows:
Home bakery, Mrs. Joseph Emsley, Mrs. S. B. Duff and Mrs. Alfred Law.
Mysters: Mrs. John T. Dugdale's class.
Ice cream: Mrs. Edward Whetstone, Mrs. John Geary and Mrs. J. W. Moss.
Candy and peanuts: Lillian Silverthorne, Lizzie Stormont and Florence Brooks.
Domestic table: Mrs. Robert Amis, Mrs. Obadiah Smith and Mrs. Joseph Emsley.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD.

James S. Dodge, one of Methuen's most prominent citizens, died early Monday morning at his home 16 Pleasant street, after a long illness. Mr. Dodge was in his eightieth year.

For half a century Mr. Dodge has resided in Methuen, and has been a prominent figure in business life here during that time. He was born in New London, N. H., Oct. 18, 1826, and there his early life was spent, and his education obtained.

He completed his schooling at Farmington academy, Farmington, N. H. In 1851 he left New Hampshire and located in Andover. Five years later he embarked in the grocery business with H. H. Beard. After the civil war the partnership dissolved and Mr. Dodge came to Methuen. Mr. Dodge again entered the grocery business with Joseph W. Fulton. Some years later he erected a building on Broadway and dissolving the partnership with Mr. Fulton he established a grocery and hardware business with his son, Selwin A. Dodge. The firm did business in Methuen until about five years ago. Mr. Dodge has practically lived a retired life for several years.

Mr. Dodge married Miss Evelyn S. Beard of New Boston, N. H., in June 1858. She is still living. They have had only one child, Selwin A. Dodge. For many years Mr. Dodge has been one of the directors of the National bank of Methuen. He was a member of the Congregational church. Mr. Dodge was a man highly respected for his sterling qualities.

LAWN TENNIS AND TENNIS.

From Fry's Magazine.
There are thousands who imagine that tennis and lawn tennis are identical. In America tennis, the mother game, is always known as lawn tennis, whereas lawn tennis is generally known as tennis. The games are in many respects very different.

The court, which in lawn tennis is open, in tennis is closed at the back sides by the walls, and almost invariably above by a roof. There is a considerable amount of play off the back and side walls. The balls are harder than lawn tennis balls, being in fact, of the consistency of cricket balls. Hence the rackets are heavier and the gut is thicker.

Should the suggestion of state tax commissioner Trefry and his deputy, Mr. Fales, in regard to the taxing of poles and wires of street railways, telephone and telegraph companies, running across private land be adopted in Methuen, it would mean quite a little addition to the taxable property in the town, as the Southern N. H., runs for some distance across private land.

In the east and west part of the town, it is said that this method of increasing revenue is already being adopted to be adopted in several towns in the western part of the state where the deputy has lately been conferring with the town authorities. The deputy has not yet visited Methuen to make any suggestions in the matter.

This new proposition is nothing more or less than to tax street railway, telephone and telegraph companies for the first suggestion of this it was supposed that the commission advocated the taxing of all poles and wires wherever located, but Mr. Trefry in answer to a question says that there is no opportunity to tax such property located in the public highway. Such a location is part of the franchise granted by the local authorities and comes under the corporation tax. The department is of the opinion, however, that whenever any of these companies leave the highway and erect poles and string wires over private land such property becomes a part of the real estate and is taxable the same as a house or any other real estate improvement. Already many street railway companies are going out of the highways for the purpose of avoiding bad grades and curves and so as to be able to run at increased speed. Telephone and telegraph companies are apt to run their wires across lots to save distance and for other purposes, and in the aggregate considerable of a tax might be levied on these companies. Up to the present time no attempt has been made to col-

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Ezekiah Jones, late of Andover, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Frederick H. Jones, of Andover, in the County of Essex, without giving a surety on his bond:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Salem, in said County of Essex, on the third day of September, A. D. 1906, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in Andover, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Rollin E. Harmon, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

J. T. MAHONEY, Register.

Do to the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court within and for the County of Essex:
RESPECTFULLY I belis and represents Eva M. Whitten of Andover, in said County, that she was lawfully married to Herbert S. Whitten, now of parts unknown, at said Andover, on the twelfth day of June, A. D. 1896, and thereafter, under the name of said Herbert S. Whitten, she has lived together as husband and wife in this commonwealth, to wit, as said Andover, until on or about the fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1896, that said Whitten has always been faithful to her marriage vows and obligations, but the said Herbert S. Whitten being wholly regardless of the same, at Andover aforesaid, has been guilty of cruel and abusive treatment of your libellant, and the said Herbert S. Whitten has contracted gross and confirmed habits of intoxication caused by the voluntary and excessive use of intoxicating liquor, between the date of said marriage and the date of this libel.

And said libellant further represents that there have been born as the result of her said marriage with the said Herbert S. Whitten, the following children: Laura May Whitten, born Aug. 29, 1896; Howard Garfield Whitten, born November 30, 1898; Gladys Evelyn Whitten, born October 2, 1899.

Wherefore your libellant prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between your libellant and the said Herbert S. Whitten, and that the custody of said minor children be decreed to your libellant and for such other relief as the court in its justice require and to your honors seems meet.

Dated this twenty-seventh day of June, A. D. 1906.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Upon the foregoing libel, ordered, that the said libellant give notice to said Herbert S. Whitten by causing an attested copy of her said libel, and of this order thereon, to be published in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper printed in Andover, in the County of Essex, once a week, for three weeks successively, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the return day of said Court, or by publishing in Andover, in the County of Essex, on the first Monday next, and by mailing, forthwith, by registered letter to the libellee at his last known place of residence, as aforesaid, a copy of said order thereon: that he may appear at said Court on or before the first Monday of September next, to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer of said libel should not be granted.

Attest,

E. B. GEORGE, CLERK.

The foregoing is a true copy of said libel and of the order thereon.

Attest,

E. B. GEORGE, CLERK.

OFFICE: PARK STREET

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME.

From the Success Magazine.

It is one of the amiable traditions of the Senate of the United States that no new Senator shall make a set speech till he has served a year or longer. Old Senators are very impatient of the assumption of importance by new comers.

The late George E. Edmunds of Vermont once allowed it to be understood that he would soon retire from public life. Idaho had just been admitted as a state, with the privilege of electing Senators, the one for a long term and the other for a short term. A Mr. McConnell drew the short term, and, having but two months to serve, proceeded to make the best of it. The day after he had been sworn in he took up a position in the middle aisle and in a foghorn voice made his speech.

While he was holding the fort Mr. Edmunds entered the chamber. He stopped short and gazed at the speaker with the utmost astonishment. Then he made his way to his seat and, leaning over to the Senator next to him, asked: "Who is that person?"

"A Senator from Idaho."

"You don't say so! When did he come?"

"He was sworn in yesterday."

"Sworn in yesterday, and making a speech today," mused Edmunds. "Well, well, if that doesn't beat all! It looks like it's time for me to quit."

And in a few days he resigned.

THE FRENCH ARMY AN INTERESTING STUDY.

(Vance Thompson in "Success Magazine.")

And so, if you will, let us go look at the French army. Not in all the world is there an army whose past is quite so glorious, nor is there in the present an army better studying, for more than any other it has reconciled equal democracy with that monstrous and illogical thing—militarism.

France has no mercenaries,—the professional soldiers who make a business of soldiering, and find a livelihood in it. Indeed, in Europe, only England and Turkey maintain the old-style mercenary army. In France, military service is a personal duty that every citizen owes to the country. That is the first article of the new military law.

There is the second article: "The military service is equal for all. There is no exemption save for physical disability. It lasts for twenty-five years." Every Frenchman serves and no one, unless he is French, is permitted to serve in the French army. It is a part of citizenship,—of good citizenship, I should say, for criminals and all those condemned in the penal courts are excluded. Special regiments exist, however, for bad citizens, and in the African battalions they may conquer an honorable civic state. No one may enter the public service,—no one is eligible for election to office,—who has not said his debt of military service to the country. By the new law every Frenchman must wear the uniform for two years; and then, until twenty-five years have gone by in his life, he may be called under the flag, either for a short period of drill or, should war come, to fight as best he may.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF HER OPPORTUNITY.

A little girl ate at a feast a great quantity of chocolate, eggs, and bananas,—and cakes,—and finally the time came for her to go.

"But you will have a little more cake before you go?" her hostess said politely.

"No, thank you, ma'am. I'm full," said the little girl.

"Then," said the hostess, "you'll put some nuts and candies in your pockets, won't you?"

The little girl shook her head regretfully.

"They're full, too," she said.

LAWRENCE

MANY ATTENDED
THE THOMAS OBSEQUES.

The funeral services over the remains of Joseph Thomas the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas of 14 Brookfield street, South Lawrence, took place Wednesday in the new St. Anne's church at 3.30 o'clock. Ever since the body of the young man arrived from Canada, where he passed away from this life, the home has been filled with sympathizing friends who have called to offer their condolences to the stricken family, and view the remains of the young man they esteemed so well. During the winter just passed the deceased suffered a severe illness from pleurisy and he gradually grew worse until his family decided that a change of climate might work a beneficial change. All that the physicians could do however, was without avail and he passed away among his relatives in Canada last week.

The church was filled Wednesday at the funeral services when a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated. The remains rested in a black broadcloth covered casket with silver trimmings the name plate bearing the inscription:

JOSEPH THOMAS,
Pray for our Brother.

The bearers represented the societies of which the deceased had been a member, namely St. Jean de Baptiste Society, and Court Mayflower, F. O. A. In the latter of which the young man was Past Recording Secretary, and were as follows: Joseph Marcoux, and Odie Carbonneau, St. Jean de Baptiste, Henri Lawrence and Alphonse Marquis, Court Mayflower, F. O. A., Alphonse Perout and George Ferris, Arthur Fontaine and Arthur Carbonneau chief bearers and members of St. Jean de Baptiste Society.

Interment took place in the Immaculate Conception cemetery.

Relatives and friends from Canada, Lowell, Manchester, Haverhill, North and South Andover attended the funeral.

There were a very large number of floral offerings, among them being the following: cross of roses with base, inscribed "Asleep" from cousins in Manchester, cross of roses inscribed "Joe" from George Ferris, spray of white pinks Miss Agnes Rainville, spray of pinks Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benoit, spray of asters from Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Riel, spray of pinks Mr. and Mrs. J. Bresnahan, spray of pinks Mr. O. Carbonneau, spray of pinks Mrs. Nellie Martin, spray of asters Miss Anna M. Donovan, spray of asters Miss Katie Fitzpatrick, cluster of sweet peas and roses Mr. Joseph Riel.

TWO INQUEST REPORTS.

Associate Justice Harry R. Dow today gave out this finding upon the deaths of Lillian E. Lawrence of Andover and Archie W. Balsar of Methuen. The findings follow:

Essex, ss. Superior Court.
To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court sitting in and for the County of Essex:

I respectfully report that on the sixteenth day of July, 1906, I held an inquest in the Police Court of Lawrence upon the death of Lillian E. Lawrence of Andover in said County who was killed upon the Boston and Maine railroad May 7, 1906.

I find that the accident happened shortly after twelve o'clock, noon. The deceased was in the passenger station at said Andover walking towards the highway which crosses the tracks at the north end of the station. I find that she was probably passing through the station as a convenient and short way of reaching her home from her place of employment. When first seen deceased was on the west-bound platform of the station and she stepped off the platform upon the west-bound track, walked across that diagonally, then walked along between the tracks for about fifty feet and then stepped upon the east-bound track and was almost immediately struck by the engine of a passenger train running from Boston to Salem, New Hampshire.

From the time the deceased left the west-bound platform until she was struck her back was partly or wholly towards the approaching passenger train. She did not at any time look in the direction from which it was coming. An engine was approaching her on the west-bound track which she was apparently watching and which passed her about the time she was struck. The engineer of the passenger train blew his whistle in the usual manner for the crossing at the north end of the station. After giving the signal he had run about six hundred feet around a curve, when he saw deceased walking between the tracks. He immediately blew another blast of the whistle and attempted to sound it again when the whistle rope broke.

The bell on the engine was rung continuously. The deceased gave no sign of hearing the whistle or the bell or the approaching train and I find that these sounds were probably drowned by the noise of the engine which was close to her on the west-bound track.

I find that the deceased at the time of the accident was a trespasser and was not in the exercise of proper care.

I do not find that the unlawful act of any other person contributed to her death.

CIGAR STANDSThe World's Greatest Cigar Outlet

THERE are more than two thousand National Cigar Stands to-day; each an established local enterprise owned and conducted by a local resident, but with all their buying power concentrated into one tremendous co-operative whole,—two thousand stores that buy as one, yet sell individually and independently.

This is the greatest retail cigar outlet on earth, and consequently the greatest purchasing power ever known in the history of the tobacco business.

What this concentration of buying can accomplish by its huge operations, its cost-reducing methods and its straight-line distribution from producer to consumer, is well evidenced in

CUBA-ROMA

A Clear Havana Cigar at 5c.

This cigar is of a quality that has never before been bought by the smoker for less than 8 for 25c. The saving of 8c. on each cigar is merely the saving of two or three intermediate profits which the National Stands, by producing their own cigars, have eliminated; plus much saving in rent and selling expense.

This saving is shown with equal effect in all the cigars sold by National Stands. Among them are:

Black and White: Seed-and-Havana; as good as was 5c

College Days: Best domestic cigar ever 6 for 25c

Adad: A first-class domestic cigar presenting 7 for 25c

Stirling Castle: Fine, clear Havana cigar, 10c. quality 6c

La Idalia: Choice quality 3 for 25c. and up

It isn't a National Cigar Stand unless the National Emblem is in the window was struck and killed before he got across.

I find that the deceased was a trespasser upon the location of the railroad and that the accident was caused by his own carelessness and was not due to the unlawful act of any other person.

SHOT HIMSELF BELOW HEART.

E. Sydney Gurly, employed as a night watchman at the Davis and Furber Machine Co's plant at North Andover, committed a series of threats to take his own life by attempting to end his existence by shooting himself through the body a few inches below the heart at his home, 20 First street, Monday noon.

His wife and daughter Harriet were eating dinner in a room off the kitchen at 12.45 o'clock, when the deed was performed. Gurly was in the kitchen and a pistol report brought his wife and daughter to his side. He was found lying on the floor with blood flowing from a wound in his body. An attempt to reach the 32 calibre revolver which lay at some distance from Gurly was frustrated by the wife.

Chief of Police Miken was notified and Dr. L. H. George was hastily summoned. Arriving, the physician advised Chief Miken ordered the wounded man removed to the Lawrence General hospital in the ambulance.

His recovery is hardly expected as the doctor reported that the bullet from the revolver had shattered the vertebrae of the spine, passing very near to the heart and lodging, he thought in the spinal column.

Gurly moved his family on Saturday last from 27 to 20 First street. He has not lived in the town many years, but is quite well known to the people there, having been born in East Boxford, and having married a very kindly by those. He is spoken of very kindly by those with whom he came in contact in his work at the Davis & Furber shops.

Dependancy is the cause given for his rash act. He was to have gone to work at noon.

Besides the wife and daughter mentioned there are ten other children; the oldest daughter being in the vicinity of 25 years of age. Gurly himself is 52 years of age. A mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Gurly, reside on the old homestead in East Boxford.

There are also three sisters, Mrs. Dexter L. Kenney, Railroad avenue, North Andover, Mrs. Florence Whitcomb, Haverhill and Mrs. Louise Perley, East Boxford; also a brother, Samuel Gurly of Boston.

LIGHTNING STRUCK NO. ANDOVER RESIDENCE.

During the severe electrical storm which passed over Lawrence and vicinity Tuesday evening, lightning struck the ell of Frank M. Greenwood's residence, 1665 Osgood street, North Andover about 11.45 o'clock.

The ell was set on fire and the flames quickly spread to the house. The family were awakened by the crash and the alarm was sounded from box 29, near the corner of Osgood and Pond streets.

The Eben Sutton company quickly responded, making the mile and one half run in record time.

The firemen rendered excellent service and with great effort they succeeded in saving the house.

By their activity the furniture was removed from the burning building before it could be damaged by the flames.

The lightning struck the south-east corner of the ell, which is a two and one half story structure, and quickly spread to the house where a portion of the roof was destroyed. The house was gutted. Both the buildings and the furniture are covered by insurance placed in the companies represented by Hon. A. E. Mack of Lawrence. The house is insured for $2000, the barn for $5000 and the furniture $1500. The total loss will be estimated today.

It is thought that it will probably exceed $2000.

Y. M. C. A. CAMP ON MERRIMACK

The Young Men's Christian Association summer camp, located just beyond Glen Forest, on the banks of the Merrimack river, opened Wednesday night and preparations are being made for a delightful time. The affair is for the members of the association, together with their lady and gentlemen friends.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra is to be in attendance to discourse music, and refreshments will be served under the direction of a committee from the Ladies' auxiliary.

The opening of this camp marks a new departure in the work of the association here, and Secretary Thomas has been much time to the details of the plan, with the result that the indications are that it will be a success.

The camp is on Mr. Barker's land, west of Glen Forest, and can be reached by electric either by going through Glen Forest or by leaving the car at Barker's landing.

The building itself is a one room structure, with a commodious veranda about. Boats and canoes are to be put in for the use of the members of the club, and the magazines and newspapers will be put in for reading. Sec. Thomas has arranged with Librarian Walsh of the public library to have some of the latest books put in for use there also.

The camp is being conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. but is a separate department, and young men outside of the association membership may join by paying the necessary membership fee of $2. The fee for the members of the association is to be $2.

The camp furnishes a delightful place for young men to gather to enjoy the outdoor air. There is a good swimming pool, and it is the intention of the association to construct a float for use in diving. There is a ball ground, and probably next year, if found desirable, a tennis court will be constructed for the use of the club members.

This year the camp will probably be open until October. Next year it is the intention to have the camp open the first of June, and remain open until Sept. 15.

Physical Director Fox will be in attendance much of the time to instruct in swimming, and to take general charge of the place.

The plan has met with cordial approval from the members of the association and many have already enrolled into the membership of the club.

FORMERLY OF LAWRENCE NOW OF VENICE.

In the New England Magazine for July are sketches of New England people, who are becoming or have become prominent in various vocations abroad. They are compiled under the title of New England Energy Abroad. One of the sketches is of Horace Fletcher, formerly of this city, who is now living in Venice Italy. The article has the following to say of him:

"Just above the Rialto in a thirteenth century palace lives a native of Lawrence, Massachusetts, who has attracted wide attention for the past few years because of a new law which bears his name: with whose theories the leading magazines will be filled this summer while the scientific lecturers are arranging to discuss them in the winter courses—Mr. Horace Fletcher. His books on the subject of nutrition are too well known to require reviewing here but a brief survey of his kaleidoscopic career is interesting. School life in Lawrence seemed tame to a boy of 15 who was thirsty for adventure. He accordingly shipped on a whaler for Japan. After his return to America he fitted for Dartmouth at Andover but soon forsook college grind for further experience in the Orient. He knows Japan well, having lived there with his family six years.

"One of the first to import Japanese toys and novelties in this country, he made a fortune in the business. His local habitations have been many, his interests broad. A founder of athletic clubs a director of French opera, a crack rifle shot, an artist, a philanthropist, an author—he is known in every quarter of the globe. He has made several complete trips around the world and has crossed the American continent forty times. For ten years he has made a study of the most perfect methods of feeding the human body. Drs. Cannon and Bowditch of Harvard and Prof. Chittenden of Yale endorse his theories while King Edward's medical adviser follows Mr. Fletcher's methods in prescribing for his patients. Health, wealth and happiness are his. He has not ceased to love his own country in becoming a resident of Venice, which he regards as a pleasant suburb—a central point. His investigations take him to the uttermost parts of the earth at a moment's notice and since Venice is one day from Paris, a day and a half from London, one day from Vienna and 28 hours from Berlin he no doubt is right that this city fills his centripetal needs. Though noticeably modest, he is a fine conversationalist and a brilliant letter-writer. His wife was Grace Marsh, an artist, who formerly exhibited in the Paris salon while their daughter Mrs. Dr. Van Lamson, is a musician whose compositions have been used by the Thomas orchestra of Chicago. The Van Somers live with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher at the Palazzo Salabate, which is on the best part of the grand canal, and the house is noted for its lavish hospitality."

BRICK HIT HIM ON HEAD.

Albert J. Richardson, a member of the contracting firm of Richardson Brothers, Methuen, was struck on the top of the head by a brick that fell about 30 feet about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The accident happened at a house in the Pleasant Valley district where Mr. Richardson was working. He was walking on the ground near the house when a workman who was engaged in constructing the chimney, let fall the brick. It struck Mr. Richardson on the head, cutting through the cap, and inflicting a gash about three inches long. He was rendered unconscious by the blow. The injury was treated by Dr. Howe, who took three stitches in closing the wound. Mr. Richardson is resting comfortably, and will probably be able to be about again in a few days.

VAIN APPEAL.

From the Chicago Inter Ocean.
When President Hadley of Yale was professor of political science there a student once offered him a poor excuse for a bad examination paper.

Prof. Hadley listened to the excuse in silence. Then he said, with a grim smile:

"That excuse is about as poor as the one a criminal lawyer offered for his client in a case that had gone hard with him."

"Gentlemen of the jury," cried this lawyer, eloquently, "remember that my client is hard of hearing, and that, therefore, the voice of conscience appeals to him in vain!"

FROM PICK-ME-UP.

The Scott is proverbially careful with money, but if the following be true he is more careful than we before believed. The other day a wild-eyed Highlander entered a chemist's shop and asked for "Two pennorth o' Rough on Rats. Awm sick o' this life," he gasped out.

He was informed that it was only sold in sixpenny packets. He looked long lovingly at his sixpence and then said: "Then Aw'll no commit suicide the noo."

Services in Colonial Theatre.

Owing to the serious accident which occurred to the interior of the First Baptist church in Lawrence, on Tuesday morning, services will be held each Sunday during August in the Colonial theatre.

Rev. Robert MacDonald, D.D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly pastor of the Baptist church in Methuen, will have charge of the service. This makes the sixth successive year that this clergyman has had charge through the month of August.

He is very popular in Lawrence and undoubtedly he will draw large congregations. His subjects will be as follows:

Morning sermons—Aug. 5, "Jerusalem Then and Now"; Aug. 12, "The Bethlehem in Bible Times and the Bethlehem of Today"; Aug. 19, "From Jerusalem to the Jordan Through Bethany and Jericho"; Aug. 25, "Beautiful Mt. Carmel as It Was in Elijah's Time and as It Is Today."

Evening addresses—Aug. 5, "The Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem—the World's Most Sacred Sanctuary"—and "The Jews' Wailing Place"; Aug. 12, "Egypt: The Nile, the Pyramids, the Sphinx, and the Great Temple at Karnak"; Aug. 19, "Rome: the Colosseum and the Catacombs"; Aug. 25, "Rome: St. Peter's—the Cathedral—Magnificent—Its Glory and Its Shame."

AMATEUR NIGHT NEW DEPARTURE AT GLEN FOREST.

Something new will be seen at Glen Forest theatre on the evening of Friday, August 10, when local talent will hold the boards for a half hour, giving acts of their own. Prizes of $15, $10, and $5 will be awarded for the best acts. This is distinctly a new departure at Glen Forest and will without doubt make a hit with those having histrionic ability.

Owing to the opportunities being limited, there being a chance for only six, a good plan would be to book at once with Div. Supt. Bruce of Boston at Northern St. Ry.

Vaudeville, and good vaudeville at that, will hold the boards all the week. There will be music, comedy and novelty in abundance.

The musical end of the show is well taken care of by The Drummer Quartette, and the Hughes Musical Trio, while the funny Quigley Brothers, Bunt and Rudd and Jack Dempsey look after the fun.

"From the Old World from the Orient" come the famous team of Aglous and Melano, burlesque magicians and their cute trick elephant "Eerht ynewt", which has to be held before a mirror, to be understood.

There will be the usual free seats for the ladies and children at the Monday matinee.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PACIFICS 3; BALLARDVALE 6.

Ballardvale suffered their second defeat of the season on the Plains Saturday afternoon, the Pacifics of Lynn winning by a score of 8 to 6.

Both teams were somewhat unsteady at times but the home team's errors were more costly. Cronin pitched a good game but his wild pitch in the first inning let in two runs. He held his position well. Daley played the best all round game for the home team. Clark batted well.

For the visitors Taylor pitched well, striking out 13 men. The batting of Thornton and Corbett were features of the game. The score:

ministers. We now have a manifest surplusage of genuine Congregational seminaries with traditional curricula in New England. Yale and Hartford are facing decrease in students, and are necessarily brought into sharp and persistent competition with each other and with Union Seminary. Under such conditions we might well hesitate to initiate plans which would simply intensify such rivalry, even if money were available for such a use; but in working toward this foreign problem, Andover would have a clear field, the warm sympathy of the alumni of all other seminaries as well as her own graduates, and the hearty approval of our churches.

The matter of location is secondary, though not an unimportant consideration. There is a prior matter which needs decision—What is to be the real purpose and ideal of Andover for the coming year? There may well be a doubt as to whether the proposed work for foreigners would find either at Andover or Cambridge the local sympathetic atmosphere which would surround and support it in a great city like Chicago or Boston; but it is idle to discuss locations until we see promise of a new type of institutional life which shall be capable and worthy of continuance under new conditions because definitely devoted to the real desires and needs of the churches. When a seminary has done so much for us and is doing so little, and might at once enter upon new and great service, the consideration of such a possible call of Providence should not be ignored or summarily dismissed.
